Catarrh! Catarrh! Catarrh! Catarrh!
What is it? How Cured?

Thousands of persons suffer all sorts of annoyance from Catarrh. Most people know what its inconvenience and results are, yet but few know how it can be cured. It is simply a chronic irritation, and of an enlargement of follicles, and consequent thickening of the mucous membrane, lining the nasal cavities, frontal sinuses, and posterior nares, and sometimes extending into the throat and lungs. From this result tightness and often vertigo of the head, obstructed nose, or a profuse flow of mucus, loss of smell, nasal voice, and often impaired hearing and taste.

The old-school remedies have never been able to do anything for it. Nasal inflections and inhalations are as painful and expensive as they are generally worthless. Yet HUMPHREYS' CATARRH SPECIFIC, a simple Sugar Pill, taken two or three times per day, promptly cures the milder cases; cures at once all colds in the head, and radically cures, by persevering use, the most obstinate cases, as is proved by the experience of hundreds.

Price, with full directions,

FIFTY CENTS PER BOX.

N. B.—A full set of HUMPHREYS' HOMEOPATHIC SPECIFICS, with Book of Directions, and twenty different remedies, in large vials, morocco case, $5: do. in plain case, $4. Family case of fifteen boxes and book, $5.

These remedies, by the single box or case, are sent by mail or express, free of charge, to any address, on receipt of the price. Address,

THE FRIENDSHIP'S OF TIME.

BY A. B. LAIDLAW.

Onward, forward, ruthless rolls,
Frightened with the wreck of souls,
Time's ebbing tide;
To the eternal ocean deep,
Kingdoms, peoples, heap on heap,
On its swelling surges sweep,
Far and wide.

Hearts may falter, souls may sicken,
As destructions dark and thicken;
Still forever on,
Life's prized friends, on its wild river,
Whirl and vanish, but rest never;
Just as ours they seemed, forever
They have gone.

Where is then, our friendship's pleasure?
In a moment—'tis the treasure
Of a fleeting spell;
When the heart is fondling by thee,
When the eye is sparkling nigh thee,
Blessed and be blessed are they by thee,
Then farewell.

Playing Juliet under Difficulties.

From Mrs. Vandenhoff's Note Book.

Shall I ever forget Romeo and Juliet at the Rochester Theatre? The balcony scene especially! The platform I stood on was a narrow door, lifted off its hinges to hold Juliet's feet; resting very insecurely, and scarcely wide enough to admit of a chair; there was one, but I dared not sit on it for fear of a mishap. The railing to the balcony was formed of a carpenter's ladder, supported at arm's length, by two men; one behind the scenes, at one end, out of sight, and the other on the stage, and masked by a piece of a scene "representing wall." Thus, I had a most frail and rickety standing place; I could not lean on the rail, (the ladder,) or the men would be unable to support it, at the full length of their raised hands; and the platform was so narrow and scanty, and so insecure, that I dared not move for fear of falling backwards, or bringing the whole "set" down with me, in sight of the audience. Talk of a love scene on such a platform!

I mounted to it by a crazy step-ladder; and what passed between George, myself, and the carpenters behind, was something like this:

Myself. (Nervously feeling the platform tremble under me.) "Ah me."

[Then aside. "Oh dear, I'm sure I shall fall."

Oh Romeo! Romeo! wherefore art thou, Romeo?

[Carpenter below. "It's quite safe, ma'am, if you don't move."]

Deny thy father and refuse thy name;

[Carpenter to the other man. "Bill, keep your side steady!"]

Or, if thou will not, be but sworn, my love;
And I'll no longer be a Capulet!

(Then aside.) "O, how I wish the scene was over!"

[Carpenter below. "Its all right, ma'am, if you don't move!"]

'Tis but thy name that is thy enemy!

(Then aside.)

[Aside. "O dear, dear, I know it'll all come down!"]

[Carpenter. "Bless you, ma'am, it's safe as the church!"]

What's in a name?

[Carpenter. "Steady with that ladder, Tom!"]

That which we call a rose
By any other name would smell as sweet!

[GEORGE. (Aside to me from behind his hat.) "Cut the scene short, Mary;"—and I made a great cut.]

Romeo, quit thy name;
And for that name which is no part of thee,
Take all myself.

[GEORGE, as ROMEO—a take thee at thy word!] (Juliet starts.)

[Crack! crack! went the platform. I trembled.)

GEORGE. (Aside.) "Keep still, Mary, for Heaven's sake."]

Call me but love, I will forswear my name,

["Curse those carpenters."]

And never more be Romeo.

Myself. What man art thou

[Carpenter below. "Don't you turn, ma'am, or you'll be off!"]

—that thus bescreen'd in night,
She stumblest on my counsel?

[(Aside.) "O dear, it's all giving way."]

GEORGE—I know not to tell thee who I am;

[(Aside.) "Don't try to move, Mary—keep quite still"—]

My name, dear madam, is hateful to myself,

[(Aside.) "And cut the long speeches!"]

Because it is an enemy to thee.

[MYSELF. (Aside.) "O George, I'm sure its going."]

Mine ears have not drunk a hundred words—

[GEORGE. (Aside to the men outside.)—"Mind those props are safe men."]

[Man's voice. "All right sir."]

MYSELF. Of that tongue's uttering, yet I know the sound.

Art thou not Romeo, and a Montague?

GEORGE. Lady, by yonder blessed moon I swear—

[MYSELF. (Aside.) "You've cut four long speeches."]

[GEORGE. "Never mind, get through as quick as you can!"]

[Actress' voice below. "Mrs. Vandenhoff, you've caught your dress in a nail; mind it don't trip you."]

A hiss from the audience.

"And so on, till the end of the scene; when just as with fear and trembling, I had descended, and put my foot on terra firma, the whole side front of Capulet's house—balcony, terrace, platform and all—clattering to the ground in sight of the audience. George rushed off to his ghostly father's cell

His help to crave, and—the rest of the line was drowned in the roars of the audience.

N. B.—Never to play Juliet in future without seeing and trying the balcony in the morning."

THE SENTINEL.

COMMERCIAL.

SATURDAY EVENING, November 5th.

Money Matters.

Money matters have moved along easily during the past week. There has been a perceptible decrease in the produce demand for currency, owing partly to the unsettled state of the grain market, and partly to the fact that a considerable amount of the money now being invested in wheat has been sent here from the East and not drawn from our banks. The result is that there has been less difficulty than usual in negotiating anything that would come under the head of straight business paper. Outside rates nominal at 1@2 per cent. a month for small loans. Exchange steady at the following rates:

On New York	1½ premium.
On Philadelphia	1½ "
On Boston	¾ "
On Buffalo	1 "
On Cincinnati	1 "

The closing sales were at the following figures: 82c for No. 2 Spring; 84@85c for No. 1; 87@88c for club; and 86@90c for extra.—There was a fair shipping demand for flour and sales of about 1000 bbls of spring extra were made at $4,25 @4,37½ for good country brands, and $4,50@4,75 for prime do. CHICAGO, November 4th.—Receipts: 5,736 bbls flour 44,586 bush wheat, 87,885 bus corn, 9,189 bush oats, 8,428 bus barley.

The wheat market to-day declined 1c on Spring grades. The news by the steamer at the opening depressed the market, but after the receipt of the New York despatches, which were more favorable, prices were expected, holders became firm, and the ruling prices were 81½@82c, at which the market closed firm. About 60,000 bushels were sold at 81 08 for No. 1 not on track; 90c for No. 1 red; 84@85c for No. 1 Spring; 81@82c for No. 2 Spring; and 76@76c for rejected Spring—all in store Flour was more active and about 5c lower on medium brands, but steady for choice.—About 2,000 bbls were sold at 4,12½@4,25 for low grades to choice Spring Extras, and at 4,30@4,35 for Spring superfine. The receipts of new corn continue quite liberal especially for car, which was dull and lower. Sales of car lots were made at a decline of 2@3c. About 20 000 bushels of all grades changed hands at 44@45c for new rejected in store; 47@48c for new No. 2 in store and 53@55c for car on the track. At the close there were large quantities of car pressing on market, which is tending downwards. The demand for shelling do not appear to be equal to the large receipts, and the fact tends to render the market for car lots lower than for shelled. Oats were very dull and 1c lower, with very limited sales at 29c for No. 2 in store and 30c for No. 1 in store. Rye quiet and steady at 60@61c for No. 1 in store, and 62½@63c delivered in car lots. Barley in good demand and 2@3c higher. About 10,000 bushels were sold at 69c for No. 2 in store, and 70@72c for No. 2. Timothy seed in good demand and firm, with sales at $2,05@2,15 for fair to prime. Provisions—Mess pork in good demand at 16@16,25 for prime to extra city. Dressed hogs dull on account of the warm weather, with sales at $3,75@ 4,87½ @ 100 lbs. Highwines quiet at 20½c Freights steady. Engagements to-day were wheat to Buffalo, 8c, and to Ogdensburgh, 12c.

Weekly Review of Milwaukee Markets.

SATURDAY, November 5, 1859—8 P. M.

FREIGHTS—Have advanced 2c on wheat since last week. Vessels for Buffalo are held at 9c. Shippers generally kick against this arrangement,more especially because it is 1c above the going rates at Chicago, and are holding back in order to bring about a reduction. No vessels have been chartered here for Oswego since the advance, and only one for Buffalo, these loading having been previously engaged. The rate on flour to Buffalo by N. Y. C. propellers is 50c; and to New York by steam and canal 90c. The rates on flour by the Detroit and Milwaukee Railway are now as follows:

To Buffalo, by rail	90c
To " by steam on Lake Erie	75c
To Albany, by rail	105c
To " by Lake Erie	95c
To New York, by rail	120c
To " by Lake Erie	110c
To Boston, by rail	115c
To " by Lake Erie	105c
To Cleveland, by rail	45c
To Cincinnati, by rail	60c

These rates will probably remain unchanged during the winter. Since the above was written rates on wheat have declined 1c, as we expected.

RETURN OF THE M. S. SCOTT.—Messrs. THORSON & FISHBECK's vessel, the schooner M. S. Scott, Capt. BIXBY, which took a load of walnut timber from this port to Europe a short time since, arrived at Panther Point on her return on Thursday last.
